

As a member of the wireless community both personally and professionally, it is my strong opinion that due to the inherent negative effects of BPL (Broadband over Power Lines), the proposal to construct and operate BPL should be ended by the FCC.